

Falling for each other was easy for Aiden and Liam, for after all it was foretold. Living their lives without revealing the secret of their heritage to the humans around them, well that was another thing altogether.

Chapter 1

AIDEN MAC RHUIDRAI, while sitting in Hamburger Mary's diner on Davie Street in Vancouver becomes upset when he notices his friend Danny reading a comic book that features Wahjee super heroes. Wahjee, a race of magical humans have always kept their presence secret, this comic exposure was forbidden on many levels. It turns out it was drawn, written and produced by LIAM TAYLOR, a younger Wahjee who had been in lust with Aiden from the time he'd first laid eyes on him when they were children.

Liam is all grown up now and he wants Aiden. Liam is Wahjee hierarchy and as such is forbidden to have sex - he is to take his place on the High Council pure. Liam has other ideas and the chapter tells how he manages to seduce Aiden, with a twist of tongue and sense of humor

Chapter 2

Wahjee children are assigned a human to befriend as they grow up - It's part of their training to learn the ways of humans, and yet not reveal their Wahjee status. Aiden has a newborn son and Liam decides to put his mark of protection on the boy, his own human, Dakota, covers for him when he leaves school to do so.

Liam's mother is aware immediately that her son has broken with tradition. She finds him and gives her warning against any kind of liaison with Aiden whose family is not of their social standing.

Chapter 3

Daniel and Evan, another human friend of Aiden's attempt to reason with their friend to leave the younger Liam alone. They accidentally stumble upon the two men in the throws of lovemaking. Aiden isn't pleased with the interruption; Liam thinks it's funny.

Liam's mother discovers he has placed some of his art at a local gallery, and once again attempts to make her son see reason. In doing so, Liam lets her glimpse some of the power he has.

Chapter 4

There is a meeting of the High Council where Liam's step father Cecil explains that Zane Chambers has broken his covenant and allowed his son to be trained in the dark arts. He wants them stripped of their powers. Someone points out that Cecil's own stepson, Liam has broken the rules with Aiden. It was the first Cecil heard.

Cecil finds it hard to believe that Morgan wasn't aware of what Liam was doing. Morgan, Liam's mother warns her son to stay away from the house for now.

When Aiden is in Toronto on business, he runs into Liam's watcher, Frances. The watcher warns Aiden that he and Liam are the subject of the latest Council meeting.

Chapter 5

Frances and his wife Marcie, pop into Aiden's apartment to tell the lovers that the council has put out a hit on the two of them and that Brad Chambers, Zane's son has taken the contract.

Aiden has a party for his human friend Daniel, and outs him to some of his straight friends in an effort to make the man grow up. It doesn't end well but Liam tells Aiden he'll always be there for him.

Chapter 6

Aiden's father tells, Margaret, his wife that he knows a Mac Ruaidhri child has been born. He blames his son for having the council remove his ability to do magic. We find him conspiring with Zane to restore his powers.

Margaret is well aware of her grandson. Shay, Aiden's son, young as he is begins to communicate with Liam on a night he is minding him. Shay uses magic to banish an

Chapter 7

In the aftermath of a disagreement with Aiden, Liam heads to Toronto. His watcher finds him and warns him that Zane is determined to take him down in payment for the death of Zane's parents.

Chapter 8

Liam plans a surprise for Aiden's 30th birthday. He arranges for Aiden to rethink his estrangement with his mother. In doing so he gives his lover a dog as well as a Wah cat - something that Aiden never expected to have.

Prom day comes with Aiden and Liam attending. Liam is uneasy about the evening. His fears are proved when Brad Chambers unleashes a kill spell at the Prom, injuring many including Liam.

Chapter 9

Aiden attends to Liam in the hospital, when there he is able to discover where the evil has been planted in his lover keeping him unconscious. He eventually releases the man he loves. Liam goes to live with Aiden. His watcher Frances warns them again about the council.

Chapter 10

Despite the fact that it would be unsafe for Liam, the young man decides to attend Shay's first birthday party. He manages to reinforce the protection power for Liam, Aiden and the grandmas are gifting Shay with his own Wah cat. Shay calls it Dawg.

Chapter 11

Liam is introduced to the world of fairies and leprechauns etc. where Aiden is the ruler.

The Amulet of Wah, a black jade amulet that has been lost for centuries lets itself be found by Liam, who will become the next keeper of the Amulet.

Frances tells Liam to give him the amulet revealing his true purpose behind being Liam's watcher and Ty and Killer attack him. Liam calls Morgan about the amulet and she warns him not to do anything bad to Frances. So Liam puts him in a birdcage until he can decide what to do.

Chapter 12

Liam shows Aiden the amulet, but while it looks somewhat familiar, his lover doesn't recognize it. Liam tells Frances he has crossed the line with the intent to hurt him, Aiden and Shay.

Evan introduces his boyfriend James to Aiden and Liam. James is Wahjee and instantly recognizes the two.

Liam decides to talk to his mother about Frances.

Chapter 13

Liam and Aiden attend a concert with their friends Vanessa and Rosalie. They meet the featured guitarist, Ashley. Liam is mysteriously attracted to him, while Aiden sees him for what he really is.

Chapter 14

In a fit of temper Aiden pops Daniel into the birdcage with Frances, Morgan calls him and insists he reverse the spell. Danny tries to tell everyone at their hang out that he was in a birdcage, but no one listens.

Jimmy and Evan are head over heels in love, but James knows he's not long for this world and tells Evan that no matter what he'll be looked after.

During an encounter with Vanessa, Rosalie and Shay, Ashley reveals his true self to the young Shay, who thinking he's doing the right thing, uses his power to vanquish the guitarist to the birdcage. His grandmother Morgan calls Aiden to tell him what his son has done.

Rosalie asks Liam for his sperm, she wants a child.

Chapter 15

Shay tries to convince Liam that he should help his mother have a child. Morgan, Liam's mother gives the birdcage and its captives to Marcie, Frances' wife to hold.

Rosalie dreams of her child growing up with Shay. Aiden talks to Shay about the possibility of having a child, but tells him it's a decision that only Liam can make. Liam makes his decision.

Jimmy takes Evan to the house he's inheriting from him. In doing so, Jimmy fades from view, leaving Evan with a letter explaining his love and just what he's been gifted with.

Chapter 16

While still in uteri, Aiden places a mark of protection on Rosalie's child.

Aiden tells Liam he thinks he made a Zyndaix baby and Liam knows that Shay is also Zyndaix. It's been foretold.

Dakota's upset about Liam fathering a child with Rosalie and not her. She's been in love with Liam since they were children. While she understands Gay, she always had her fantasies.

Chapter 17

Morgan pops in to talk to Aiden about the kids; how they'll need constant protection, etc. the rest of their lives.

Shay performs a spell ritual with Ty and Killer to protect Aiden, Liam and Phoebe.

Liam pops himself and Aiden to a fairy retreat as real fairies.

Chapter 18

Aiden and Liam mess with Daniel's head at the fairy retreat.

Aiden goes after Brad and his gang who hurt a friend. Liam follows him and Shay makes Brad and his gang small as mice and Killer eats them.

Chapter 19

Aiden is working hard at opening his own business and finds out he has cancer. They go away for a week after the surgery and Daniel makes a pain of himself to find out where Aiden is.

While Aiden and Liam are at the Ranch for Aiden's rest and recovery, Ty pops in to tell them that Rosalie will give birth soon.

Marcie tells Frances he has to be in the doll house for another 30 days and when the spell is reversed he'll lose his watcher status.

Chapter 20

A changeling is put in Phoebe's place at the hospital.

Liam, Aiden, Shay, and the 2 Wah cats are flashed to a shadowy room what they see Liam's father, Stephen Taylor the 6th. He has Phoebe and tells Liam he's not ready to care for a Zyndaix child.

Liam meets his Wah cat and asks why no one ever told him he had one. Liam's father tells him it is too soon to tell him about his life and why he lives in what appear to be caves but it's really under his palace.

Liam is given a choice about Phoebe. Either lose he altogether or let her stay where she is to grow and be safe. Liam chooses that she stay with his dad.

They are back at the hospital and go in to meet Becca and to welcome her to the world.